MISS META STOFEN NEW WORTHY MATRON

Takes Office Thursday Night at Installation Ceremonies of Valley of the Moon Chapter, O. E. S.

The annual installation of officers of Valley of the Moon Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, took place on Thursday evening and was one of the finest nights in the history of the Chapter. The retirement of Edna Stillings, past matron and Charles Potter, past patron was, as customary, the occasion of appropriate and deserved compliments to these faithful outgoing officers and the felicitations of their successors. Mrs. Stillings and Mr. Potter received the customary jewels and responded in heartfelt manner for the honors conferred upon them.

The Masonic hall was beautifully decorated and the holiday setting proved a charming background for the installation ceremonies. Miss Meta Stofen, new worthy matron, is the daughter of Mrs. Dora Stofen, one of the charter members of the Chapter and with her efficient corps of officers should bring new honors the coming year to the lodge. The following are the new officers:

Worthy Matron—Meta Stofen.
Worthy Patron—Max Soley.
Associate Matron—Maude Champlin.

Conductress—Hattie Breitenbach.
Associate Conductress—Mildred Goltz.
Secretary—Laura Whitmore.
Treasurer—Anna Pennington.
Ada—Ida Hotz.
Ruth—Nell Clements.
Esther—Mae Benjamin.
Martha—Edna Cooper.
Electa—Mae Lewis.
Warden—Petra Jensen.
Sentinel—S. Kellar.
Organist, Louise Rubke.
A turkey banquet at 7 p. m. preceded the installation.

SONOMA BUSINESS MEN HOLD MEETING

Endorse Public Projects and Appoint Committee for Community Christmas Party.

At the regular meeting of the Sonoma Business Men's Association on Monday night a communication was received asking the support of that body in the efforts of Cloverdale to obtain the completion of its state highway while contractors are there. Six miles were ordered graded and left unopened. The Sonoma Association voted to send a telegram to the Highway Commission urging the completion of the entire road which is an important artery of travel.

At the request of the Sonoma county Board of Trade, the business men ordered pictures taken in and around Sonoma city to be shown at the Los Angeles tourist bureau.

E. H. Hoyer, the service station man, became a member of the Association at Monday's meeting.

Letters of thanks were ordered written to Dr. Butler, for sending the orchestra to the street paving celebration last month, and to Louis Parente who provided the jazz music for the street dance.

Dues were paid in the North of Bay Counties Association, with which the Sonoma Business Men's Association is affiliated.

Arrangements were made and a committee appointed to get up a community Christmas tree and dance on Friday, Dec. 23rd. Chas. LaTorres was authorized to appear before the Board of Trustees and request that the streets be illuminated during the holidays.

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS

The attractive home on Riverside Drive once occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nivet, now of the British West Indies, has been sold by A. Pinelli to Captain and Mrs. Heinke. The place seems destined to be the home of world travelers, Mr. and Mrs. Nivet having come here as tourists and deciding to make this Sonoma Valley cottage their abiding place for some time, and now Captain and Mrs. Henke, who have traveled widely, have purchased the property outright.

The former Molly Johnson place, which was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Powell has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hendry, formerly of Crockett, who have taken up their residence here.

Miss Jeanette Cooper, who entertained the Flying Needles this week not only provided a hospitable afternoon but showed her rare heirlooms and antiques to the ladies.

Y. M. I. COUNCIL BAN- QUETS GRAND OFFICERS

Sonoma Council of the Young Men's Institute banqueted the grand officers of the lodge Thursday night at the Women's club house and the affair was one of the most successful of recent years. It followed the regular meeting at Woodmen Hall.

Accompanying the grand officers were many visiting members from neighboring councils and they were royally treated by the Sonoma lodge. A sumptuous banquet prepared by the ladies of the parish was partaken of and wit, repartee and oratory were no small part of the program. The local council was complimented on its flourishing condition by visiting officers and its work highly commended.

Grand President John C. Heffernan from Stockton and Past Grand President J. P. Fitzgerald of San Jose proved excellent speakers and Rev. J. F. Byrne presided over the banquet and acted as toastmaster. Musical numbers and dancing terminated the evening.

CLUB NOTES

At the meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club Friday, it was decided to defer improvements and enlargement of the building. The cost of the improvement was estimated at $1300, an expense which the club voted to defer indefinitely.

The club regrettably accepted the resignation of Mrs. Al Stein as corresponding secretary, appointing Mrs. W. F. Clewe to fill the vacancy. Mrs. L. V. Emparan was appointed Club Reporter, Mrs. Nell Clements having resigned that office. It was decided to have a Christmas celebration.

Several new members were proposed. Recent new members are Mrs. Savacool, Mrs. Geo. Leiser, Mrs. L. Lambert, Mrs. H. Castagnasso, Mrs. Martin of San Francisco, Mrs. M. Kaplan and Mrs. J. F. Prestwood.

Club Reporter.

Otto Brandt has just returned from Chicago where he bought a prize Clydesdale at the stock show there. Marcy & Peterson are renovating and improving their plumbing shop. The Marcy property has been nicely painted on the exterior, also.

CITY FORMALLY AC- CEPTS PAVED STREETS

Trustees December Meeting Wednesday Night of Considerable Interest

Contractor Gorrill appeared before the Board of City Trustees Wednesday night and asked that the paved streets, now completed, be formally accepted. On motion of Trustee Bates, the formal proceeding was entered upon the minutes, the final and complete payment on street work to be made at the adjourned meeting on December 21st.

The Marshal's and City Recorder's report were read and placed on file.

A. J. Martinson asked permission to do excavation necessary to the laying of cement sidewalks along his property frontage on Broadway.

Engineer R. C. Specht read the draft of a proposed resolution setting forth specifications for cement sidewalks laid anywhere within the city limits. The resolution was adopted.

Secretary Chas. LaTorres of the Business Men's Association asked that the city be illuminated Saturday nights during the holidays. His request was granted by the Board.

R. R. Emparan of the water company was instructed to put in standard fire hydrants at 3rd St. West and Spain St., 2nd St. East and Spain St., and in front of the Clewe residence.

Trustee Dobbel suggested the inauguration of a free mail delivery, which was discussed by the council. The garbage question was also up for discussion.

PLAN MASKED BALL FOR CONVENTION FUND

Red Men to Give Benefit on Feb. 21 for Big Conclave to Meet Here Next July.

At an enthusiastic meeting Sunday of the general committee recently appointed by the Redmen and Daughters of Pocahontas to prepare for the big convention of the Order, to meet here next July, it was decided to give a masked ball on Washington's birthday eve, Feb. 21, 1922. Proceeds will go into the convention fund in order to maintain Sonoma Valley's reputation for hospitality and put the locality on the map as the best convention city in California.

The meeting Sunday was at the home of Mrs. Rosa Randolph, president of the Daughters of Pocahontas.

MORE DONATIONS RE- PORTED BY FIRE CHIEF

Chief Geo. Cause reports additional donations to the Fire Department as follows: P. Meinhardt, $5; Mr. Stoneberg, Schellville, $2.50. The bell on the fire house at Boyes has been put up and the fine bell donated by Mrs. Susan Whiting will ring in the New Year, 1922.

WILL VISIT NEIGHBORING OIL FIELD TOMORROW

About thirty local people will make the trip to Bereyessa Valley tomorrow to view the wonderful Griffith Oil Company property. E. J. Harris of the company will guide the party and show them the 300 foot well now producing plenty of oil and another well with shaft down only 23 feet producing from 3 to 5 barrels of oil daily. It is the highest grade oil.

The company has 18,000 acres of the oil land leased in Napa County and have subleased 6500 acres to the Associated Oil Company which now has two complete drilling outfits on the ground.

Anyone desiring to view the property may join tomorrow's excursion, which leaves from Duhring's corner at 9 a. m.

WILL CELEBRATE AT AGUA CALIENTE HOTEL

T. F. Corcoran, proprietor of the Caliente Hotel, formerly run by Mrs. T. Richards, announces a grand-all night affair to celebrate New Year's eve, December 31st, at Agua Caliente. Mr. Corcoran formerly of San Francisco has proved a popular host at Agua Caliente Springs of which he has been proprietor during 1921 and he extends a cordial invitation to the public to participate in the New Year party at the hotel. Dancing, story telling by a famous monologist, fine music and a big supper, cabaret style, at 11 p. m., will be features. Reserve your tables now for the New Year's eve festivities.

Mr. Corcoran aims to make the celebration at the big stone hotel one of the best ever held in the Valley of the Moon. Watch our next issue.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH RALLIES FRIENDS AT DINNER

To cement friendships and further the work of the Congregational church in many lands, the trustees of the local church gave a dinner Tuesday evening which was largely attended and a most enjoyable affair. The ladies of the church, famous for their good cooking, prepared a fine feast to which all did ample justice.

Chas. C. Champlin was toastmaster and presided over the dinner in his usual genial manner, welcoming the guests and introducing several well known speakers. Dr. L. B. Rathbone, W. J. Spiers and Dr. Brown, formerly of Turkey, gave very interesting talks on the scope of the church work and its needs of support. All who attended the dinner voted it successful and enjoyable from every point of view.

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR SONOMA DEC. 23

Business Men's Association Plans Party for Children and Grown-Ups During Holiday Week.

At the regular December meeting of the Sonoma Business Men's Association last Monday night, it was decided to have a community Christmas tree and party for the children and grown-ups on Friday afternoon and evening, December 23rd. The Christmas tree will be a natural one selected from among those in the Plaza and will be brilliantly lighted up and trimmed for the big fete. If the weather proves inclement, the Christmas tree will be selected from a lot of cut trees, the biggest and finest to be obtained and will be set up in Union Hall where the kiddies will make merry and have a chance to interview Santa Claus.

There will be music and dancing, for the big folks at Union Hall, dancing to start at 10 p. m. and continue until 1 o'clock. Perkins orchestra has been engaged to furnish music.

President Clewe of the Business Men's Association has appointed the following committees to take charge of the affair:

Al Stein, Rae Hunter, Chas. LaTorres, Harry Fine and Ernest Bancroft.

UNUSUAL DANCE AND RAVIOLAS, TOO

The party-going young people of Sonoma county are curiously awaiting the unusual dance and raviola supper at Pancrazi's, Glenn Ellen, on New Year's eve. Unusual music, decorations and novel stunts promised, together with confetti and serpentine are enough to make the crowds on the qui vive for the unusual affair.

A San Francisco orchestra has been engaged by Mr. Pancrazi for the party.

Next Saturday night, December 17, there will be a dance at Pan's also. Nut sed.

NEWT DAL POGETTO A BREWERY DIRECTOR

VINEBURG NEWS

The many friends of Philip Bill Sr., the well known superintendent for many years of the Rhine Farm will be sorry to hear that the gentleman met with a painful accident Tuesday last by falling off a ladder which broke and sustained a fracture of two ribs and is now confined at home.

The residence of A. Ligi is now nearing completion and sure improves the looks of the burg.

Mrs. Henry Bartoli, nee Rose Basaglia, of Sonoma was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto on Wednesday last and during the visit exchanged greetings with friends. Rosie was for a number of years assistant bookkeeper with John Batto & Sons and is well known and highly esteemed in this part of the valley.

We see by the issue of the Sonoma Index-Tribune of December 3 that we are taken to task by our respected brother reporter, Archibald McKiver, of El Verano, for missing one week's items. We assure you, Archie, it was not due to any over indulgence of Thanksgiving, although I had a swell time, but I don't think Volstead for it, and all my fair assistants are home and enjoying good health. But now to come down to plain facts, Archie, I lost out that time in trying to find you a suitable fair assistant and very near succeeded in securing a handsome blond of charming personality and versatile ability and also old enough to vote. All the articles of disagreement were drawn up except one clause and that was the question, wet or dry, and when she said dry, I said, "Excuse me, Miss, you better cut El Verano out and go to Los Angeles, with the moving picture people down there they are always dry."

The Prince of Good Fellows

JUST TWO WEEKS UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

WE ALL have our stockings hung up for Peace.

THE ONLY thing that keeps the bootleggers in business is customers.—Canton News.

MANY MUNICIPALITIES are getting envious of the prosperity of their best bootleggers.

THE PRICE OF GOLF BALLS has come down; now if the price of highballs would—but, pshaw, what's the use?

"WHAT KIND of a record has he" used to mean something about character. Now it is just a question of "An't We Got Fun" or Galli-Curci.

PRESIDENT HARDING has proclaimed this America's Educational Week, to study the needs and aims of the public schools. They need everything and their aim is the stars.

AMERICA is Carrionized, all right. Witness the ruthless breaking of bottles and pouring liquor in sewers. Our national hysteria is a spectacle which will go down in history.

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLL BUGGIES arrived in Oakland last week—a healthy sign, for it means 2,500 babies not so long ago. The baby of today is the buggy-owner of tomorrow.

CAUTION AND SAFETY FIRST are lessons which cannot be taught too often. The terrible tragedy to high school students at Red Bluff should be a lesson to all young folks and older ones, too, to stop, look and listen.

A NEARBY TOWN complains because its telephone patrons have to twist the tail of their telephones instead of having the up-to-date system of lifting the receiver from the hook. Why worry? We are separated from our coin just as easy.

THE FRENCH STATESMAN, BRIAND, upon returning to France, did not complain that his wine was watered, but rather on the fact that our dry America winned the water. Well, wining and dining distinguished visitors has been such a time-honored custom with us that we sometimes forget to water them.

UP IN AMADOR COUNTY several barley sacks of acorns stored up for the winter by woodpeckers and jays were removed from an old attic by workmen. It is to be hoped that the higher species profited by the example and have also begun to store up some kopecks for the winter. If deposited in a good sound bank their "acorns" will be quite safe.

JEANETTE RANKIN of Congressional fame, figures that women's non-combative influence is being felt in the great plea for disarmament. Indeed, with a good tongue and a trusty rolling-pin the women folks have been able to get all the fight out of their systems. The men folks, with smouldering caveman instincts always ready to hearken to the war cry might try these time-honored safety valves themselves.

CALIFORNIA is run very economically declares Governor Stephens. If that is the Governor's opinion we need some one to show him how to reduce, or better, how it can be "did" with the right man on the job. Not long ago in Petaluma the good Governor said with much emphasis and an almost dangerous pause, "California spends more money than any state in the union . . . on education." Now if the education will teach us how to spend less money or get more for our money California will have accomplished much for its sterling citizenship. Californians are too liberal and too thrifty to be imposed upon by a tax-eating political machine.

WITH BOOTLEGGING an acknowledged industry, the fact is apparent that fining bootleggers is just another way of cities collecting saloon licenses. High license, maybe, but so are the price of drinks high under prohibition which does not prohibit. Destroying and pouring liquor down sewers may discourage vendors but overnight more is manufactured to take the place of the destroyed stuff and the human sewers who pour it down their stomachs get just that much viler stuff. Trying to beat nature out on the alcoholic process and create temperance via Volstead law is a labor which makes Lenin and Trotsky's dream of a millenium in Russia look simple as organizing a school board.

DESIGN OF JIM PETRAY STATUE IS SELECTED

With a beautiful and appropriate design selected by the committee in charge, work will begin immediately on the Petray Memorial, to be placed in Santa Rosa in honor of the memory of James A. Petray of Healdsburg, former sheriff of Sonoma county, killed in the discharge of his duty as an officer a year ago. Selection of a design and material was made by the committee, consisting of Judge Emmet Seawell, H. B. Rosenberg of Healdsburg, and Dr. Thomas MacLay of Petaluma, during a visit to San Francisco early this week. Mr. Rosenberg has just returned from the city and told of the type of memorial selected.

This will be in the form of a crescent, placed across the northeast corner of the county court house grounds. The curve of the crescent, forming the back of the memorial, will be 24 feet long, and on it will be seated a statue of the Goddess of Justice. The statue will be eight feet high.

Within the curve will be a slightly raised floor of stone, and at either end will be placed a drinking fountain. The whole will be made of pressed stone, a composition material capable of a high finish and said by the committee to be attractive in statuary work.

A contract for the work has been let and the services of a prominent San Francisco sculptor, Von Saden, secured to carve the statuary and decorative work. He will start immediately on the figure of Justice, to be the most prominent part of the design.

The committee has approximately $2,400 to devote to the memorial, the money having been raised several months ago.

DIDN'T KNOW THERE WERE SO MANY CRANKS HERE

In the last issue of the Sonoma Index-Tribune someone advertised for a crank—automobile crank, of course, for the human variety cannot survive our salubrious climate and stay a crank, no siree. Well, the automobile crank we advertised for and in response to the ad in these columns, we received one crank on Monday, another on Tuesday and a third on Wednesday. One crank was located at El Verano, another in Sonoma and a third between Glen Ellen and this place.

Now, if our friends, the car owners, will come in, claim the cranks and take the same away we will appreciate it, because we have no use for cranks around the Index-Tribune office, especially at Christmas time.

NAPA CITY FRAMES DRY ENFORCEMENT

As a result of action by Mayor Trower, who is head of the city department of public affairs and order, an ordinance for the enforcing of the dry law in Napa is to be framed and placed before the city council for adoption. The mayor and city attorney will confer and frame the ordinance, which will be especially directed against anyone selling liquor in Napa.

Mayor Trower and other members of the council who entered the discussion, stated they were not in sympathy with the Eighteenth Amendment, and living in a wine-making county, were particularly opposed to such a law as the Harris measure. But the mayor, as a law abiding citizen, stated that the Volstead act is a law, and therefore must be enforced. He realizes that federal agents are doing all that they can, but stated he also knows that despite their efforts the bootlegger is flourishing in Napa. Moreover, the present unlawful booze agent is not paying a penny into the city and is reaping a harvest that the legitimate liquor of days gone by never dreamed of.

Our Christmas number will appear December 17th.

Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Rag Doll's Christmas

HERE was once a very, very old rag doll who lived in a nursery. She was so old that she had seen all the children grow up—the boy who wore trousers now, the girl who had her hair done in braids, the middle-sized child who had so often left the rag doll out in the garden at night. There was only the baby left—bless his pink toes!

But the rag doll was very, very old, and one beautiful Christmas time she began to show her age.

Her hair had been combed so much that it had come out dreadfully, and her nose, from a great deal of kissing, was entirely gone. Her pretty pink cheeks had been washed away when the boy tried to teach her to swim in the bath tub, and all her clothes were very untidy indeed.

The baby never noticed all these things, but the toys did; they all made the most unkind remarks to the rag doll the day before Christmas.

"Look at your dirty face," said the large French doll.

"You'll be put in the attic to-night. That's where the old dolls go."

"Look at your dress," said the jumping jack. "It is all torn. I wouldn't walk across the nursery floor with you."

"Did you ever see such thin hair?" asked the hobby horse. "I thought my tail was thin, but it isn't so compared with that!"

But just then the nursery door opened, and the Christmas Angel came in. You could be perfectly sure that it was the Christmas Angel even if she did have on a gingham apron, because her face shone so through the dark.

"The French doll must go up to the attic," said the Christmas Angel.

"There is a more beautiful new best doll coming."

"Why, the jack-in-the-box has forgotten how to jump."

You see the jack-in-the-box had been so excited about the rag doll's dress that he had broken his spring.

"The jack-in-the-box must go up to the attic, too," said the Christmas Angel.

Then she went over to the hobby-horse.

"Poor, old hobby-horse!" she said. "Your leg is very badly broken. I will take you up to the attic until you can be mended."

"There," the Christmas Angel said at last, "the nursery is all tidy, and ready for new toys—but, dear me, what's this? Why, it is the little rag doll!"

"Oh, please, do I have to go to the attic, too?" said the rag doll. "It's very cold there, and I know the best doll will have the chimney corner for herself—and I don't want the nice to gnaw my toes!"

"Why, you dear old thing!" said the Christmas Angel. "You're the same rag doll that I used to play with when I was little. You go to the attic? Why, I just guess not! We couldn't get along without you in the nursery. You do need a little mending, but I am going to sew you, and then you shall sit on the very tip-top of the Christmas tree."

The Christmas Angel lighted one of the Christmas candles so that she could see to sew. Then she took the rag doll in her lap and opened her working and set to work.

First she stuffed the rag doll's in sides with plenty of cotton so she could sit up. Then she sewed her toes and put new little white stockings and black shoes on her feet. She took a piece of clean, white cloth and covered the rag doll's dirty face, and painted in blue eyes and a smiling red mouth and vermilion cheeks. She sewed on a new yellow wig; and then she made a pink and white checked gingham dress with puffed sleeves, and a white apron with strings to keep the dress clean, and a pink and white checked sunbonnet to tie under the rag doll's chin and keep her hair tidy.

"I think you will do now, you dear old thing," said the Christmas Angel.

So it came Christmas morning, and there on the tip-top of the tree sat the rag doll quite made over. The children thought her really the most beautiful of all the Christmas things. As for the rag doll herself—why, all the pleasure of her old days was as nothing to the happiness that was hers now.—Carolyn S. Bailey, in Kindergarten Review.

Early Christmas Morning

FOUR little feet patter on the floor,

Two single-sock'd heels pattering in at the door,

Hear the merry laughter o'er the chimney's stair,

Early Christmas morning.

Two little stockings full of socks and toys,

Everything so charming for little girls and boys,

How could they help, then, making such a dreadful noise

Early Christmas morning?

Down beside the stockings many gifts were spread,

Dollies, drums, a cradle, and a brand new sled;

"Haven't we too many?" little Nellie said,

Early Christmas morning.

Four little bare feet on the sidewalk cold,

Two little faces with want and hunger old,

Peeping through the window where those gifts were laid,

Early Christmas morning.

"Yes," says John to Nellie, as he spies the two,

"We've so many presents—tell you what we'll do:

I'll give half of mine away, now, dear Nellie, will you?"

Early Christmas morning!

Two little hungry ones into the house were called,

Favors heaped upon them all they stood enthralled,

Was not this the angel's song, "Peace, goodwill to all?"

Early Christmas morning!

Decorate the

Christmas Package

EVERY one when sending a Christmas gift desires it to appear as attractive as possible. When we receive a gift nicely wrapped with tissue paper and decorated with pretty Christmas seals, there is an added pleasure. This is especially so when we realize that the sender has spent time and cleverness to give this little touch of personal thoughtfulness.

Many varieties of Christmas seals may be purchased, but a little originality will not come amiss even in these small details.

There are seals for the outside package and the heading to be used on the note paper, conveying the good wishes of the giver, or on the little card of greeting. These two in each set match. This gives another touch of the unusual, which is always sought after.

Have a piece of carbon paper, place it over the note paper, card or seal, and on top of this one of the designs. Carefully trace with a sharp pencil the entire outline. An exact duplicate of the design will be found on the note paper or seal ready for tinting. This may be easily done with water colors or wax crayons. Poinsettia should be colored a warm, bright red, with yellow centers and dark green stems.

Holly, the special emblem of this season, has berries a vivid, fiery red and glossy leaves of dark green.

A dainty basket of forget-me-nots would be pretty colored yellow, the flowers a faint light blue and the bow-knot of pale pink. Now we have the mystic sign of the holidays, borrowed from the Druids, the mistletoe. The berries of this plant are a pearly white and the leaves a yellowish green.

Spend a little extra time giving the Christmas gift this novel decoration, and the pleasure it affords will never cause you to regret having done so.

Economy is to be considered at Christmas time. Our purse-strings have been stretched to the breaking point purchasing gifts for relatives and friends. To put this fascinating bit of handwork upon the Christmas package costs comparatively nothing, aside from the time you spend doing it. This fact counts very little when we add to the enjoyment of others.

These few suggestions will probably cause endless ideas for the Christmas package to present themselves to you. Make your gifts radiate the holiday spirit; give this little bit of personality and attractiveness to as small a thing as the Christmas seal.

HOW UNKIND

"Fred is getting nearsighted."

"It doesn't follow that there is anything the matter with his eyes because he can't see one under the mistletoe."

Christmas Packages.

A woman whose Christmas packages never fail to reach their destination in safety says she always writes the name and address of the recipient upon the inside wrapper of the box containing them. Packages sometimes lose their outside wrappings, but if the postal clerks can find the address on the inside wrapping all will be well. This woman also ties up the inside wrapping securely before putting on the outside cover.

THE ROSE OF JERICO

Pilgrims Told of Its Power to Bloom on Christmas Day.

Blossom Given the Name of Resurrection Flower; Also Called St. Mary's Rose.

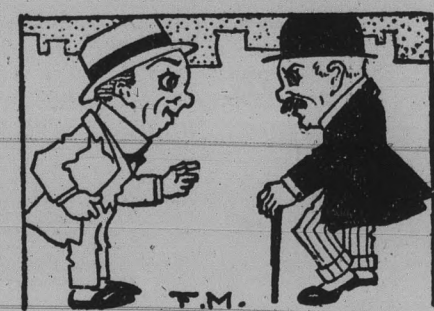

SEVERAL varieties of the so-called resurrection plant have appeared among the novelties offered by florists but the original is the rose of Jericho. Along the shores of the Dead sea, far enough away to be out of reach of the death-dealing vapors and the salt spray, grows this rose, a little plant famed in many a legendary story which, when ripened, rolls up its sprays and branches into a curious little brown ball.

The desert winds snap off its dry stem and whirl the seemingly dead little ball away over sandy plains, like a feather-weight. After it chances to reach some damp place, in about ten days, the moisture has wrought a miracle for the once dead is alive again, green and growing.

The old-time pilgrims, who brought back this plant with them from the Holy Land, told wonderful tales of its power to bloom out on Christmas day and gave it the name of resurrection flower. Another old legend names it from every spot where they halted to rest.

The dry ball when unfolding drops its seeds, and from these it may be cultivated as an annual. To resurrect these dry balls it is simply necessary to keep them standing in glasses of water, immersed about halfway to the top of their branches. The expansion is merely a mechanical spongelike process.

The botanical name of the rose of Jericho is anastasis, from anastasis, resurrection. There are other species of resurrection plants, but they are not so attractive as their Dead sea relative, which, although it has very little beauty, has an honored place among flowers because of the many fancies and associations it calls up and its peculiar development.—Argus.

THAT PESTIFEROUS BOY. "A Merry Christmas, old man. But why are you limping?" "That pestiferous boy of mine set a stool trap for Santa Claus."

CONSOLIDATED DISTRICT BOND ELECTION

The recently consolidated Dunbar Union district of which Glen Ellen, Kenwood, and Dunbar are a part, will hold a bond election for the purpose of bonding the district to buy a lot and build a school house at the cost of $37,500.

The new school will be situated midway between Kenwood and Glen Ellen and the plans call for a modern building of five classrooms. The attendance from the consolidated district will average about 150 pupils. Officers for the bond election will be as follows:

Precinct No. 1—Inspector, Edward Ranker; Judges, Mary E. Cowan and S. V. Thompson.

Precinct No. 2—Inspector, James W. Gibson; Judges, Mrs. Velma Panceri and Mrs. Grace Hopper.

Precinct No. 3—Inspector J. H. Weise; Judges, Mrs. S. L. Campbell and Mrs. J. Bonbright.

The trustees of the Dunbar Union School District are: Leopold Justi, Milo S. Baker, Daniel Friedger, and Alice E. Schiek.

The bonds yield six per cent and run for 30 years.

GARAGE MAN BADLY INJURED IN SHOP

Bob Hilliard, ex-service man and proprietor of the Valley of the Moon garage, was badly injured while at work on a car in his place of business at Fetters Springs when a piece of steel flew out of the crank case of a car on which he was working and struck him with full force in the face. Hilliard's jaw was badly lacerated and his teeth knocked out. Twenty-five stitches were taken by Dr. Thompson to close the wound inflicted by the steel bar.

Hilliard was formerly in partnership here with Wm. Sutter at Duhring's garage.

carriers to stop and study, and thus lose time. Make the address plain and easily read, and always use pen and ink or typewriter and light-colored envelopes, so as to save the eyes of the post office clerks. Do not use envelopes of unusual size. The little ones that are so frequently used for cards and notes at Christmas and other holiday times cause an untold amount of trouble and labor, as they will not fit our canceling machines and must therefore be canceled by hand. Because of their size and tendency to slip out of a package, these small envelopes are more likely to be overlooked or lost.

Mail your letters and packages early in the day because this avoids overloading and delaying mail at the end of the day.

Your local postmaster and your teachers will tell you more about the Postal Service.

Do these things, and you will win the grateful appreciation of the people in your post office and especially of Your Postmaster General, WILL H. HAYS.

Christmas Spirit, Peace and Good Will Should Prevail.

Time to Be Happy and to Aid Others in the Enjoyment of the Season's Cheer.

On earth, peace, good will.—Luke 2:14. SURELY there is a mystic tie between spirit and nature, between heaven and earth, between God and man. Not strange is it, then, that on the night of the most wondrous birth time has seen, the age sealed skies should part and song of angels entrance the watchers on Bethlehem's plains.

What is the secret of the unwanted charm, brought by this brightest day in time's calendar? Why is the season charged with such gladness? Why do men and women feel that they can lay down their vexing burdens and their faces smile again with the faith and joy of childhood's care-free days?

It is the hush influence of the angelic song on the natal night, "Peace on Earth." To a humanity distracted, troubled by doubts and fears, wounded by sin and smitten by conscience, God sends a message: "Fear not, I am your Father. I give you a Savior from sin and misery. You are my children. My heavenly peace I breathe upon you." And in this sweet pledge of divine remembrance and Fatherly love—of God at peace with men—a wave of tranquil joy floods the world.

But, again, it is an evangel to man of peace with himself. Every man finds discord in his own being. His innermost personality is the seat of antagonisms. He is an instrument out of tune. The primal harmony of his spirit is broken. He is at war with himself. His baser strives with his higher nature. Soul and body war against each other. But "on earth peace," chants the seraphic choir. Regard the image of God stamped upon you. Put down the low and base. Let the spirit rule and the body serve.

Finally, the Christmaside should breathe the spirit of peace in our business and in all the relations of life. Especially in our homes we can cultivate the Christmas spirit, displacing their frequent discontents, fault findings and contentions with peace and good will.

For this glad time, at least, let us all be better men and women; less selfish, more kindly, easier to live with. And how much happier will we be if this Christmas spirit—its cheery glow and kindly warmth—stay with us all through the year!—Junius B. Remensnyder.

CALIFORNIA TELEPHONE AND LIGHT PLANS

Asserting that it had used for capital expenditures $123,686.21 that otherwise would be available for dividends on preferred stock, California Telephone and Light Company of Santa Rosa asked authority of the Railroad Commission yesterday to issue as fully paid up 1,546 additional shares of 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock of the par value of $100 a share to the holders of outstanding preferred stock in lieu of unpaid dividends. The applicant expresses the belief that all the preferred share holders will agree to accept the additional stock at 80 and to waive dividend claims. The company states that if it is relieved of its obligation to pay the accumulated dividends in cash it will be in a position to resume dividend payments on its preferred stock.

20 TONS OF PEACHES FROM CALIFORNIA ORCHARD

A peach growers' contest was conducted in 1920 in Sutter County, Cal., in which 83 orchards owned by 55 farmers were entered. Each contestant turned in a complete account of the methods by which his crop was raised. The weights of the peaches grown and the quantities of each grade were carefully tabulated at the canneries to which these peaches were consigned. Careful judging was done under a strict set of rules formulated by a committee from the county extension organization in which the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Agricultural college were represented. The first prize was awarded to a woman grower, whose orchard produced at the rate of 40,240 pounds per acre of No. 1 peaches, for which payment was made by the cannery. The awarding of the prizes and the announcement of the methods by which the high yields were obtained constituted a most efficient demonstration of the best methods.

The same contest for 1921 closed on September 28. Due to frost and rains this year the yield was not nearly so heavy as last season. The highest record in the county for 1921 was 31,200 pounds. The woman who won first prize the preceding year won the cup for quality and condition of orchard this year, and had a yield of 27,357 pounds. The heaviest Tuscan orchard yield was 18,877 pounds, and the heaviest midsummer orchard yield was 26,822 pounds to the acre.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

The following message from the Post Master General was read in the Sonoma schools this week:

Washington, Nov. 23, 1921.

To the Boys and Girls of the United States:

Christmas is almost here. Your great Post Office Department has a big job ahead and needs your help.

Think what it means to be Santa Claus to our 100,000,000 people and to deliver Christmas parcels to every family in this great country within the short space of a few days and without disappointment.

It can be done, and we're going to do it if we have your help. I want to enlist the active assistance of every boy and girl in the schools of our country in getting parcels mailed this week to relieve the rush that comes directly before Christmas.

Will you go home today and take this message to your parents and friends:

"Our postmaster has asked us to mail our Christmas parcels this week for, unless we do, Uncle Sam's load may be so heavy the last few days before Christmas that he won't be able to deliver all the presents by Christmas eve."

The parcels must be well wrapped and tied and addressed plainly in order that they may arrive in good condition with their Christmas appearance unspoiled. You can put on your packages, "Do not open until Christmas."

And there must be a number on your house and a mail receptacle, too, for if there isn't, Santa Claus's messenger, your letter carrier, may not be able to find the house where the present belongs.

There are some other things, too, in which you can all assist in improving the mail service and in saving our great Government millions of dollars a year that is now wasted because of our carelessness—yours and mine.

Every day that you drop a letter in the mail box 40,000,000 other letters are already pushing and jamming through the postal machinery. One letter a day for each family of five persons in the United States is given to Uncle Sam to deliver.

When you send a parcel to the post office for mailing any day there are about 8,000,000 other parcels ahead of yours passing through the postal hopper. This is in ordinary days; at Christmas time it is multiplied many times.

One family in about every ten put a badly addressed letter in the mail every day. This mixes up over 20,000,000 half addressed letters with the 20,000,000 fully addressed letters. That means that the fully addressed letters must wait on the slow moving poorly addressed letters just like the larger boys and girls are delayed by a bunch of bad kids tagging along.

You boys and girls can help the postal service and save your father some money, because he has to help pay the cost of searching addresses on letters and parcels sent out by this one careless and thoughtless family in every ten.

First find out if your family is the careless one, then bear in mind that your letters must be handled by skilled mail distributors standing in post offices and on swaying postal cars of a mile a minute mail trains, oft n under poor light.

The address on every letter, or package must be correct, complete and legible, including the house number and name of street, and the from address should be in the upper left hand corner so that the mail will be returned to you in case it is not delivered. Do not abbreviate states because so many of them look alike when abbreviated.

Put the proper amount of postage on your letters and wrap the parcels carefully. Avoid fancy writing which causes post office clerks and letter

SONOMA FEEBLE-MINDED COST $1400 PER YEAR

Sonoma County parents and guardians of inmates of the Sonoma State Home are to be placed on inquiry to ascertain whether they are contributing all they can toward their support. If parents or guardians have the ability to do so, they must contribute to the support of relatives sent to the home. Otherwise it costs the county $20 a month for each inmate sent from the county. County Probation Officer John P. Plover will visit the home this week for the purpose of getting the necessary data.

If a parent or guardian can not pay the whole of the maintenance of a person sent to the institution, the county makes it up. It is believed that some financial saving will result from the investigation that is to be made.

It now costs the county $14,000 per annum for the care of inmates in the Sonoma State Home.

J. K. Bigelow, accompanied by Contractor Ralph Murphy, motored to Mendocino County Saturday last to look over the Bigelow cattle ranch and pick out a site for a commodious bungalow to be occupied as a summer home by the Bigelows. The ranch is across the Eel River near Dos Rios.

Bishop Moreland will hold a service of Holy Communion and will preach at the Trinity Church Sunday December 11 at 11 A. M. All friends are welcome.

CHRISTMAS AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The social afternoon of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club which falls on Friday, the 16th, will be the occasion of a Christmas celebration among the club members. Mrs. Amelia Bates will be hostess and Miss Anna Burr will have charge of the program. The decorations will be characteristic of the holiday season and in addition there will be a shower for the club house. The club reporter having received the following night letter from Santa Claus, it was decided to act on the suggestion of the patron saint: Mrs. L. V. Emparan.

Club Reporter:

Valuing your enthusiastic support at this season, and knowing you will give this message wide publicity, I write to say that inasmuch as I cannot do all that I would like this year for the excellent organization, the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, owing to the great demands on my philanthropy from the little folks of this and other countries and owing to the world-wide distress and unemployment at this season, I would suggest that all loyal club members show their true Christmas spirit by making some useful gifts for your very attractive club house. Not so long ago I dropped in one evening down your hospitable chimney and made an inventory of some things you seem to need, namely, tea towels to dry the new silver which you recently purchased, a carving knife to preserve your patience and ward off wrinkles, sugars and creamers for your growing guest list, books to enrich the minutes by your fireside, a vase or picture to interest and be decorative, and it might not be amiss to suggest to some of your more prosperous and philanthropic members that a Victrola and about 50 fine records would be indeed a splendid gift, for with me you will agree that music is the divine note of the universe.

Were it not for the Western Union and its limitations I could go on and on with my aspirations for your most excellent club.

When I come next year let me see all my fond dreams have come true and your club house so provided for and adorned that I will have to tax my brain and pocketbook far beyond expectations to hit upon an appropriate gift for you all. With best wishes for a very merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.
SANTA CLAUS.

BROTHER OF LATE C. T. RYLAND DEAD

John Wallace Ryland, one of San Jose's best known philanthropists, a grandson of Peter H. Burnett, the first governor of the state of California, died shortly before midnight Tuesday night at his home at 464 South Fifth street. For several months past the health of the deceased has been poor, and recently he has been under the constant care of a physician.

He was born 65 years ago in San Jose, and here he spent most of his life. He was graduated from the law department of the University of Santa Clara, but engaged in active practice but a short time. He served four years as postmaster of San Jose and later devoted his time to managing his estate. Up to the time of his death he was president of the Ryland Corporation.

Although the deceased is understood to have donated large sums for charitable, educational and other purposes, the extent of his philanthropy activities will never be known, since in this respect he took few into his confidence. The University of Santa Clara, it is known, has received several endowments from his wealth. With other members of his family, Mr. Ryland was the donor to the city of San Jose of the public park which now bears his name.

C. T. Ryland, his father, was prominent in early California political history, having been a candidate for governor of California. The deceased's grandfather, Peter H. Burnett, was the first governor of the state of California, and as such officiated when San Jose was the capital of the state.

Surviving the deceased are two sisters, Miss Norma Ryland of San Jose; Mrs. Harriet R. Irby of San Francisco; and two brothers, Joseph Ryland, head of the San Jose Water Works, and Dwight Ryland of Denver, Colorado.

F. F. Partridge of San Francisco, owner of one of the show places of Sonoma Valley, spent Sunday at his beautiful home which is located near El Verano and took back some fine turkeys and geese for a feast at his city home. Partridge specializes on pheasants and all kinds of fancy birds and fowls at his ranch here. Mrs. Phillip Bill Sr. has been sick for several weeks but is now much improved.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Friday evening, Dec. 2, Sonoma High met Tomales High in basketball. The game was played in the Union Hall. Those who attended for the sake of thrill were not disappointed. The 130 pound team played first. Our players excelled Tomales' players in nimbleness and shooting. Don Prestwood and Gene Robin were in the thick of it when you least expected them. Our team got the first two points "right off the bat." Several times the Tomales team missed a goal because the ceiling came down and hit the ball and also their other excuse was the floor was slippery. They did not like to admit that our team was too much for them. In the last quarter the 130 pound team put on the whole substitute team. A regular team of Tomales gained 10 points, Tomales this we hope to have a basketball team in the future. At the end of the game the 45 to 11, in our favor. The team had a little of this game John Steiner and James Bigelow shown out in brilliant playing. The score at the close of the last quarter was 42 to 17, Sonoma carrying off the laurels. A game is expected to come off in two weeks at the Union Hall. The game will be played against Napa.

The Honor Roll of the Sonoma High School is not very large this quarter but allowances can be made as it is first quarter and the new pupils are just getting acquainted with the school and its ways. The Honor Scholarship Society has as its members: Elizabeth Serres, Vesta Prestwood, Harry Scholl, Anna Noyes, Anita Camm, Marie Anderson, Donald Prestwood, Irene Tracy, and Herschel Hyde. More are expected to make the Society after the incompletes are off their cards.

The cafeteria is coming along very nicely. Two girls are selected from the cooking class to take charge of it a week at a time. The surplus money, it is said, will be turned over to the Girls' Student Body.

On Saturday, Dec. 3, Prof. Golton went to Santa Rosa to meet other high school principals to discuss students' social activities. Some important rulings were adopted.

On Monday last Mr. Golton went to San Francisco to study plans for the new high school building. He reports spending many hours in the architect's office.

SEIZED LIQUOR POURED INTO SEWER AT SANTA ROSA

Friday witnessed two interesting developments growing out of the recent liquor raids here.

Confiscated liquor valued at $3,000 was poured into the gutter by L. Schutleff, a federal officer from San Francisco, assisted by Mayor W. E. Rutherford and others.

P. Ruggeri, one of the men who pleaded guilty and was fined for selling intoxicants, served formal notice on the mayor and other officials demanding the return of his "crushed grapes," which he values at $1,200.

It was a silent crowd that witnessed the pouring of several hundred gallons of wine, whiskey and other beverages into a gutter at the side of the city hall.

Through Constable Oscar Matthews, Ruggeri served notice on Mayor Rutherford, Officer Herman Hankel and the Lee Brothers Storage Company that he expects the return of his crushed grapes on the score that the goods were taken illegally.

The point is understood to have been raised that a John Doe warrant if search is not legal, and that the Ruggeri liquor was seized on such a warrant.

Upon the advice of federal officers fourteen barrels of wine, including Ruggeri's, are being held in the bonded warehouse here. Schutleff said yesterday that this liquor can legally be disposed of for enough to pay storage charges.

Results count. The classified advertising column of the Index-Tribune renders 100 per cent satisfactory service.

LOCAL RELATIVES AT DILLON FUNERAL

Obsequies Last Sunday at Petaluma for Judge Dillon Impressive and Largely Attended.

Mourning by the entire community which loved and respected him, the late Judge C. H. Dillon was laid to rest in his home town, Petaluma, last Sunday afternoon. After private services for the family, the remains were borne to the Episcopal church where a large concourse of old friends and acquaintances gathered to hear the beautiful eulogy and the impressive services as conducted by Rev. Mainwaring of St. John's. The Masonic Lodge, of which deceased had been a life long member took charge of the interment and a worthy brother was laid to rest with all the customary beautiful rites of that Order.

Among Sonoma valley relatives and friends attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery P. Akers, Miss M. Goodman, Mrs. A. Pauli, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pauli, Mrs. Dora Stofen and R. P. Hill.

The following sketch of the pioneer's life is from the pen of Art Newburg, city editor of the Petaluma Argus:

Two miles south of Boonville, Cooper county, Mo., Charles Hardy Dillon was born, March 16, 1833, so last March passed the 88th anniversary of his birth.

When but five years of age, the scene of his experiences was changed with the removal of his parents to Saracine, Jasper County, Mo., where he was reared on a farm until he was a young man, in the meantime receiving his education in the rate schools. In bad weather he remained at home and studied under the direction of a teacher. He remained at home until 1852, the last year at home being spent in superintending the home farm. In the year mentioned, he started as a teamster with a freight train of 32 wagons, from Kansas City to Santa Fe, N. Mexico. Returning to Jasper County, Mo., he worked there until December of that year, when he removed to Carthage, Mo., working in a store and attending school at night.

Here he joined a party of 30 men and women and started across the plains for California. They left home on May 1, 1853, reaching Hangtown, California, Sept. 19th of the same year. Here he purchased a mining outfit and engaged in mining at Diamond Springs. Later he went to Rough and Ready and then to Yuba River, where he worked on a flume. From the latter place he went to Jackson, Amador County, and prospected during the year 1854. In the spring he went to the vicinity of Newcastle near Auburn, where he also prospected, thence to Bidwell's Bar on the Feather River. From this place he drove a six-mule team, hauling lumber to build a flume at Bidwell's Bar. The next move the ambitious and prosperous young man made was to take a donkey and provisions and journey up the Sacramento valley to Weaverville, Trinity County, where he successfully mined for four years.

Mr. Dillon came to Sonoma County in 1859 and in company with others he invested in a ranch and engaged in farming and dairying for two years near Petaluma, at the end of which time he went to the town of Sonoma and opened a butcher business. In the meantime he had been engaged in teaching in various parts of the county and was then reputed to be the best teacher of music and dancing in this part of the state. He conducted classes in San Francisco and the coast towns. For half a decade Mr. Dillon continued in the butcher business in Sonoma, when he sold out and conducted a drug store for many years with much success.

Finding a larger field of activity in the commission business in San Francisco, he sold his drug store and for 11 years was engaged in the commission business at San Francisco and after selling out, was appointed deputy license collector for that city, which office he retained for four years.

In 1882 he returned to Petaluma engaging in several enterprises and also teaching music and dancing. He conducted the first Paper Carnival in Petaluma in 1885, the first on the coast, and similar events in San Francisco in 1886 and 1887, clearing $20,000 in the two bay city events for an Episcopal Church of that city. Going to Seattle in 1888 he put on the same carnival and the following year in Walla Walla with unusual success. He engaged in business in Seattle until 1899 when he came to Santa Rosa and engaged in the retail shoe business until 1901, when he returned for the third time to Petaluma, and on Mountain View avenue, engaged in the poultry business, a pioneer also in that line. He engaged in various activities until 1907 when he was elected city recorder and after serving for years was elected police judge under the new charter, which office he successfully filled until a few years ago when he retired owing to his advancing age. He was the first police judge under the new charter.

On Oct. 22, 1868, at Sonoma, he married Mattie J. Akers, daughter of Judge Stephen Akers, and the union was a happy one; husband and wife uncomplainingly sharing sorrows and hardships as well as pleasures and success together, their sunny natures keeping both of them young beyond their years. Mrs. Dillon survives. He is also survived by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fanny Thompson Dillon of Hicks Valley.

OIL BORING OPERATIONS JUST OVER THE HILL

This morning the great oil boring outfit brought here by Olsen Bros., the noted geologists and oil experts, was set going and good progress is being made on well No. 1 on the Miller property near the Ducker ranch in the foothills east of town.

They plan to drill six wells and have awarded the contract to expert drillers who have the finest steam outfit ever brought to this district. The Argus has known for weeks of their plans, but at the request of the gentlemen, nothing has been said of their subject.

They have nothing to sell but are spending their own coin and have secured leases to over 1,100 acres of land and feel sure that they will find oil in paying quantities, as they believe that the indications here are as good as anywhere and that the oil lies up to this district from the great underground lakes of the south and that this is about the northerly limits of said supply. They have gone over the ground thoroughly and have been here for weeks and propose to sink six wells and to secure oil at no great depth. It is stated that they have a wonderful diving apparatus to back up their knowledge of oil indications. Both gentlemen bear the highest credentials and are business men who quietly made their plans without any hurrah or publicity, asking odds of no one.

It is stated also that the Ansonia Company, now drilling on the Ducker farm nearby, will resume operations as soon as needed machinery arrives here.

Quite a number of Petalumas were present when drilling commenced on Friday morning and the drill was down a dozen feet before they left.

HAS TONIC EFFECT

Christmas Day Pleasures Are of Benefit to People.

Mental State Does Everybody Good and Festivity Equals Prescription of Physician.

CLOSE observers in the ranks of the medical profession have noted one very interesting fact concerning the Christmas season—that it generally has a good tonic effect upon their patients. In explanation of this the London Lancet says that since Christmas has come to be regarded as a time for good cheer, a universal feeling of contentment and happiness is engendered at this time of joyous-ness, routine is for a while relieved, a certain freshness is given to the daily round, differences of opinion are sunk, and a charitable spirit prevails. Is it by the way, hoping for too much, asks the Lancet, that the season of good fellowship should leave some lasting effect upon the manners and methods of all?

It may not be easy to trace exactly why the sense of exhilaration and well-being comes with the advent of Christmas, for the psychological factors concerned are not simple. But the main point is that the mental state does everybody good, and the annual festivity is just as excellent an institution as the prescription of the physician which gives tone and vigor to the struggler in life's race. There is no need nowadays, thanks to the good sense of the people and the counsels of their medical advisers, to mor-talize about the evils of a stupid indulgence in food, alcohol and tobacco on a festive occasion such as the present. Practically everybody realizes the great physiological advantages of being wise on a merry occasion.

Many more persons than formerly feel where use ends and abuse begins and they act sensibly accordingly; and so far from it being a crime to make the season festive by enjoying, on a little extended scale perhaps, the creature comforts of life, some decided good is done to both the mental and physical health of the individual.
The festive season may, therefore, be welcomed, which brings cheer to thousands, which induces the generous and charitable to brace the mental and physical functions of the community at large, giving it the opportunity of relinquishing its business and its worries for a time, to start again refreshed and ready for "the trivial round, the common task." The prescription "A Merry Christmas" is sound so long as the "signature" of good sense is observed.

OLD YULETIDE CAROLS

"Holy Night" Regarded as One of Most Beautiful Songs.

"Draw Nigh, Immanuel," One of Oldest Pieces and Far Antedates Any Others.

THE ancient Christmas carol, "Holy Night" is German in its origin and is considered by many persons to be the most beautiful of all Christmas carols. It has sometimes been ascribed to Martin Luther, but the consensus of expert opinion is that it is much older than his time and is one of the oldest of German folk songs.
The carol "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen" is English in its origin and dates back to about the beginning of the Seventeenth century, although the author of the words and the composer of the music are unknown. The fine old melody sung to this poem possesses all the best qualifications of a sterling hymn tune and will probably last as long as the verses with which it is always associated.

The carol "Draw Nigh, Immanuel," is one of the oldest pieces of coherent music in existence, and both the words and music far antedate any of the others. The music is an old French melody, dated from the Thirteenth century, although, of course, it has been harmonized to conform with more modern standards.

There is a most curious but beautiful musical effect at the close of this carol. The words of "Draw Nigh, Immanuel," are about 100 years older than the music, being taken from the Mozarabic breviary of the Twelfth century, and it is generally believed that they were taken from the liturgy of the early Christians at Toledo, Spain, where the Mozarabic breviary was formulated.

Another carol, "The First Noel," has a traditional French melody and probably originated in Breton, although the exact origin of this fine old song is somewhat in doubt.

CHRISTMAS TOKENS OF LOVE.

WHEN any uncertainty exists let us give a token of love, or friendship, or human kindness, something that, while expressing these things will, at least, be harmless. Let it be something that does not last—that brings the meaning and vanishes —something that never will know the indignity of the top shelf of the spare room closet!

A knock at a friend's door on Christmas morning and the clasp of a hand do this. A growing plant does it—but, most of all, thou beside me, singing in the wilderness—the personal revelation does it. Suppose a letter came on Christmas morning; to say—not "You are perfectly dear to have sent me a spool box," but "I want you to know that your patience, or courage, or tenderness, during this last year, will help me to live more bravely and courageously and lovingly this next year." What a Christmas present the receipt of such a letter would be to any one of us! What a Christmas present for any one of us to send to the human heart that has given us courage for the burden and heat of the day!—Indianapolis News.
